New Website Announcement

July 31, 2014

Kuraray Chemical Co., Ltd.

We are pleased to announce the release of our new website, which is located at the new address: www.kuraray-c.co.jp/en/.

The updated pages with a fresh new look and user-friendly navigation contain information about our products and the solutions we provide. You can also find useful knowledge about activated carbon on “Introduction of activated carbon” pages at www.kuraray-c.co.jp/en/activecarbon/.

You can also get in touch with Kuraray Chemical as before at our existing website address www.kuraraychemical.com, which will be updated as the website of Kuraray Chemical Liaison Office in USA and continue providing information and customer services.

We hope that the new website will be yet another useful tool for strengthening our business relations with our existing customers and our customers in future.
